

13. Continuing Security Programs

b. The continuing security programs shall include:

(4) Security review programs to ensure that appropriate security authorities always receive and exchange, in a timely manner, all information bearing on the security posture of persons having access to SCI. Personal history information shall be kept current, including an individual's outside employment and other outside activities, with or without compensation, that have potential security implications. Such activities may include foreign travel, association with foreign nationals, sponsorship of aliens into the United States, submission for publication of academic or scholarly articles, and the like. Security and related files shall be kept under continuing review.
